Remove Shares
At my request and as an accommodation to me, please remove the above listed shares from my Account. I have determined that the security meets all the criteria below:
The security is not listed on a U.S. or foreign exchange.
Over the past three months, there have been no published bids or offers, quoted prices, or reported trades, in a recognized securities market; and no sale reports through an over-the-counter reporting facility.
There are no announced or known pending distributions or asset servicing events on, or offers (including from third parties) with respect to, the securities (regardless of whether the issuer is the subject of an insolvency proceeding).
The security is not exercisable or convertible into a security other than another security without a readily determinable price.
The value of the security cannot be reasonably determined based on values derived from an underlying reference asset, formula or methodology.
